

1958/2018
 SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
 60th anniversary concert season

Johann Strauss, Jr.

The King of Waltz meets
 Dubuque's King of Dance!

SATURDAY, MARCH 23

FIVE FLAGS THEATER, DUBUQUE

Adam Kieffer

Join the Dubuque Symphony Orchestra in a dance

before Saturday, March 23rd's "on water" performance! Our concert program features Johann Strauss, Jr.'s On the Beautiful Blue Danube, one of the most well-known waltzes of all time. Adam Kieffer of Adam's Dance Connection will cover the basics of the waltz in a one-hour lesson, offered free of charge with your Mar. 23 DSO "on water" concert ticket!

To reserve your place, please email khoeper@dubuquesymphony.org by Wed, March 20th and provide your name, phone number, and guest name (if applicable – dance partner not required). Space is limited, so please RSVP promptly!

Dance with us and Enjoy the concert!

6-7PM
FIVE FLAGS BIJOU ROOM

DSO March 23 "on water" ticket and RSVP required for entry.

Concert tickets may be purchased at the Five Flags Box office (corner of 4th and Locust) M-F (10am-5pm), or through Ticketmaster.com (online fees apply). Tickets must be purchased and RSVP emailed by Wed, March 20th to participate in the dance lesson.

7:30PM
FIVE FLAGS THEATER

A musical celebration of rivers, oceans and fountains! Steve Heitzeg's Aqua celebrates the sea, utilizing special percussion, such as seashells! Immerse yourself in Respighi's Fountains of Rome. Guest cellist Anthony Arnone is featured in a new cello concerto by Cedar Rapids native Michael Daugherty. This piece, whose recent recording garnered three Grammy awards is inspired by the stories of Ernest Hemingway.